

The Great Fire of London Homework Grid

Our topic for the summer term is all about The Great Fire of London. We would like you to choose one topic based homework task per week to complete.

Sensory Writing	Recipe Making	Ligton to London's huming
Have a think about what you would be able to hear, see, smell and feel around a fire. Can you write four sentences to describe this?	white-bread	Listen to London's burning https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5Atpbo3wOts Try to sing along to it. How does it make you feel? Add a video of you singing along or explaining how it makes you feel.
Did You Know? Find out about another person who had a key role in the Great Fire of London. Create 'Did you know?' fact cards about them that you can share with the class.	Story Writing Write an imaginative story about being in London during the Great Fire. What would it be like? The clothes, the work, the games that you could play at	You might have an idea of your own that you would like to try. Remember to record your work in some way. It could be through a piece of writing (leaflet, play script, poem) or photographs, puppet show, diagrams or artwork.

Getting to know you

Write a set of questions that you would like to ask Thomas Farriner if he was still alive today.

Art

Find a piece of artwork inspired by the Great Fire of London. Write at least four sentences to describe what you can see and then draw your own picture inspired by it.

Poetry

Write a poem inspired by the Great Fire of London. The choice of poem is entirely up to you!

Word search/Crossword

Create a word search and / or crossword puzzle for Mrs Crowcroft and Mrs Rotherham to solve using at least 12 Great Fire of London keywords.

Design a house

Design your own Stuart/Tudor house just like the ones that burned down in the Great Fire of London. Can you use some wood on it, maybe lollipop sticks? Can you give it a thatch roof?

Historical Maths

Using your maths knowledge of basic skills + - $x \div$ write out some word problems (with answers) to challenge yourself and your family members!

