

WHAT SHOULD I ALREADY KNOW?

- I can use the four compass directions to describe position.
- I know the 4 seasons and can link different weathers to each season.
- I can explain what a county is and which county I live in.
- I can name and locate England's capital city.

What will I learn?

- Countries near the equator get very hot and countries far away from the equator get very cold.
- Atlases and globes help us to find different countries and continents.
- India is located in the continent of Asia (There are seven continents altogether).
- The Capital city of India is New Delhi.
- There are three seasons in India: Winter, Summer and Monsoon Season.
- The Ganges is a river in India, in the UK our capital city London is by the River Thames.
- Many cities in India are located by the banks of rivers. The rivers also have an important role in Hindu Religion and are considered holy by many Hindus in the country.
- The rivers in India play an important role in the lives of its people. They provide water, cheap transportation, electricity and jobs.

Weaving concepts

VOCABULARY

Equator	Imaginary line around the middle of the Earth
Atlas	A book that shows a variety of different maps
Globe	A model of the Earth
River	A river is a moving body of water that flows from its source on high ground, across land, and then into another body of water
Climate	The weather and temperature in a place
Monsoon season	A windy and rainy season in India

The Indian flag

