

History: The Great Fire of London

Y1/2 Spring

What should I already know?

- The difference between the past and the present.
- That life was different in the past.

Vocabulary

diary	A book used to write daily experiences.
eye witness	A person who has seen something and can describe it.
bakery	A shop selling baked goods like bread.

What am I going to learn?

- The Great Fire of London began on the 2nd September 1666.
- It broke out in a bakery belonging to Thomas Farrinor, on Pudding Lane.
- The fire spread quickly and lasted for four days. It destroyed a lot of London.
- Samuel Pepys wrote a diary which tells us about the events of the fire.
- Christopher Wren helped to redesign the city after the fire.

Significance

Cause & Consequence

Civilisation

Legacy

