What should I already know?

- I know that Muslim public worship takes place in a mosque.
- I know that Muslims prepare for prayer by completing wudu.
- I know that the second pillar of Islam is called Salat-prayers performed five times a day.

Vocabulary

Qur'an – Is the holy book of Islam.

Qibla – The direction towards the Kaaba in the sacred Mosque in Mecca.

Mecca– The city was the birthplace of Muhammad, the founder of Islam. Muslims all over the world turn towards Mecca to pray five times a day.

What am I going to learn?

- Qibla is the direction towards the Kaaba in the sacred mosque in Mecca.
- Women are not obliged to attend the mosque, so many pray at home with their children. All that is needed is a clean place to pray so that they can show proper respect for Allah.
- Even at home, Muslims must perform before prayers, take off their shoes and use a prayer mat. They perform several rak'ahs of Salah facing Makkah.
- The Qu'ran teaches that the world is a mosque, so Muslims can pray anywhere.
